

Good Faith Estimate: Delivering the estimate to your patient

Last modified on 01/16/2026 3:03 pm EST

Now that you've created the Good Faith Estimate (GFE), it's time to get it to your patient. There are a couple of ways you can do it.

- You can print from the preview screen.
- You can send it electronically to their OnPatient account.
- You can fax it to the patient.
