

How do I backup all of my information within DrChrono?

07/08/2024 7:57 pm EDT

DrChrono offers a number of ways to back up your information. You can learn how to export your patient demographics by going here. There are a lot of other things that you can export and you will learn through this article.

Additional Patient Information

A patient's medications, allergies, immunizations, and problem lists will have to be manually exported for each patient. Please follow the steps below to learn how to do this.

1. From the Patients drop-down, please click on Patient List and select the patient whose record you would like to export. Or you can use the Search box to look up the patient.

2. Once in the patient's file please choose Clinical Dashboard from the side menu.

A screenshot of a patient's Clinical Dashboard in DrChrono. The dashboard is for a patient named Laurie Sample, a 31-year-old female born on Dec 8, 1990. The dashboard includes a side menu on the left with various sections like Demographics, Appointments, Clinical Dashboard (highlighted), Documents, Eligibility, Tasks, Problem List, Medication List, Send eRx, Allergy List, Drug Interactions, CQMs, Intake Data, Lab Orders, Immunizations, Growth Charts, onpatient Access, Education Resources, Communication, Family History, and Imaging Orders. The main content area shows patient information, a 'Summary of Care Provided' table, 'Ongoing Problems' table, 'Active Allergies' table, and 'Active Medications' section. The 'Summary of Care Provided' table has columns for Appointment, Summary of Care, Summary of Care requested and not available, and Type. The 'Ongoing Problems' table has columns for Problem, ICD-10-CM, ICD-9-CM, SNOMED, Diagnosis Date, Status, and Notes. The 'Active Allergies' table has columns for Medication, Reaction, RxNorm Code, and Notes.

3. At the top right of the page click on Clinical Summary and choose Download PDF from the drop-down menu.

Billing

You are able to export your HCFA forms as a PDF for each patient, or all at once. It is recommended you do one patient at a time, so it makes it easier to attach it to a patient's file. The exported HCFA forms will appear in your message center.

Please go to the Billing drop-down and click on Lives Claims Feed.

Note: You are only able to select 50 appointments at a time. For example, if you have 5000 appointments you will need to export them 100 times and change the filter criteria each time.

Here, please enter your search criteria, and select Update Filter. You have multiple options to print under the Export to File menu when you click on the ( ) icon next to the Export to File button.

Note: Clicking directly on the Export to File button to the left of the ( ) Print HCFA options will only export out the details of the claim in a CSV file, and not the line items that you would get when you print out the entire form.
